My dear Sir:

I have received your letter on my return from Winnipeg and I have also seen Mr. Hamilton. Possibly in view of the fact that you had a conversation with him on Saturday the difficulties between you are now solving themselves.

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

My dear Sir,

I am much obliged to you for your courteous letter of November 24th, which would have been answered sooner but for the fact that I have been out of town.

It is agreed that either your good self or the Library Committee shall decide as to the price at which publications required for the use of students shall be sold. This will place us beyond the criticism of the trade.

We would like to put on record our keen appreciation of the courtesy shown us by your good self and Professor Abbott. Professor Abbott thoroughly appreciated our point of view whilst at the same time recognised Mr. Hamilton's contentions.

Reiterating our appreciation of your
